

The PLE Learning Exchange is pleased to announce that this year's day of discussion will take place on Monday, June 1, 2015.

What to expect:

The day will be an opportunity to share experiences with and learn from others who are working to increase understanding of legal rights within communities across Ontario. Our agenda will include:

- 1) Reflections: Connecting Across Language and Distance – eight years later
- 2) Environmental scan: Trends and changing needs in Ontario's diverse communities
- 3) Taking a snapshot: Legal information training for community workers and leaders
- 4) Learning from other fields: Introducing CLEO's report on linking health literacy and legal capability

Details:

Location: 519 Church Street Community Centre, 2nd floor meeting hall, 519 Church St., Toronto

- East side of Church St., 1/2 block north of Wellesley St.
- By TTC: take Yonge line (line 1) subway to Wellesley station. Walk one block east to Church St; cross Church St and walk 1/2 block north to 519 Church St.

Time: 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (registration will start at 8:45 a.m.)

How to RSVP for the symposium!

Please email Kristina Brousalis (kristina.brousalis@cleo.on.ca) with the following:

- Your name, best email and phone contact information
- Your organization's name
- any dietary restrictions, food allergies or accommodation needs

*Coffee, tea, water, snacks and a light lunch will be provided.