WHAT IS SEX TRAFFICKING?

Sex trafficking is forced prostitution or sex work. It involves the use of one of the following means to force or recruit someone into sexual exploitation:

Threats or use of force

Coercion

Abduction

Fraud

Deception

Abuse of power or vulnerability

Giving payments or benefits

EVERYONE DOES NOT TRAVEL BY CHOICE

WHAT DO I LOOK FOR?

1. Sensing that something is not right with your passenger
2. The passenger appears frightened or anxious
3. The destination is a hotel but the passenger has no luggage
4. The passenger does not know their home or work address
5. Someone else pays for their trip
6. The passenger has bruises or displays other physical signs of abuse
7. The passenger frequently uses taxis to go to and from hotels/motels
8. The passenger looks 16 or younger. You have a duty to report to either the police (911) or Children's Aid (519-455-9000)

One of these on its own may not be concerning, but a combination of these indicators may alert you to a human trafficking situation
